

George Washington Carver Teacher Education Program

A Collaborative Degree Program*
ISU, Simpson College, DMACC

What is it

- A teacher certification program for working adults, with a strong need for minority participation.
- For student without prior credits, this program can be completed in as little as 5 years while working full-time.
- Begins Fall 2003
- Two classes per term with ten-week terms

Why should you apply

- Earn a bachelor's degree and teaching certificate
- Receive an Associate of Arts degree while working toward a bachelor's degree
- Work full or part-time and take classes in the evening at convenient downtown locations
- Study as a team with others in the program for support and friendship.
- Rapid progress toward your goal
- Very affordable with full financial aid.
- One-on-one academic support and advising

How do you apply

Call or email Dr. Georgia Hale and request an application at 515-294-1410 or ghale@iastate.edu

Complete and return the application form and other materials before June 30, 2003

People of color are strongly encouraged to apply.*